I. POLICY

NYU Long Island School of Medicine provides three-year (equivalent to six semesters) full-tuition scholarships to all matriculated students who maintain satisfactory academic progress and professionalism standards, regardless of merit or financial need.

Tuition Refunds
Students who require more than three years (six semesters) to complete the NYULISOM medical education program are responsible for any tuition and fees associated with additional time to meet graduation requirements.

When a student is dismissed or withdraws from the medical school for any reason, tuition and fees paid for unused semesters will be refunded in full.

The following scale applies to partial-semester tuition refunds:
- After one week: 90% refund
- After two weeks: 70% refund
- After three weeks: 50% refund
- After four weeks: No refund

Fees Refunds
Student fees are not refundable

Other Allowable Refunds
Students are not charged for individual NYULISOM-sponsored medical insurance, therefore, no refunds are applicable under these circumstances. Medical insurance coverage will continue through the end of the semester in which a student withdraws. Payments for the purchase of NYULISOM-sponsored dental or vision coverage for a non-matriculated semester may be refunded following NYU Langone Health Benefits guidelines.

If a student vacates housing during a billing period, a prorated refund will be issued. Students are not charged for parking therefore no refunds are applicable.

II. PURPOSE
This policy addresses tuition and fee refund policies and procedures at NYULISOM.
